LEGION PLANS TO TAKE PART IN MOVE FOR WORLD PEACE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—American Legion officials here foresee in the Legion's participation in the Interallied Veterans' Federation conference to be held in Brussels, Belgium, early in September, a definite step toward world peace. The legion delegation to the convention, which recently sailed for Europe on the Leviathan, headed by National Commander Alvin Owsley, will be prepared with a definite program for such an agenda. The legion men are confident that the word of the American ex-service men will play a big part in the final program offered to bring about international peace.

Owsley Will Attend

Commander Owsley heads the party, though he will take no part in the deliberations of the convention. He will be present as an observer. In 1922, when the organization met at New Orleans, the legion leader was one of the supporters of the program offered there. To Col. H. Nelson Jackson, vice president of the federation representing nearly fifteen millions of men, is entrusted guidance of the legion's delegation as chairman. Col. Jackson resides in Burlington, Vt., and is well versed in international affairs. R. E. Cusack of New York city is vice chairman of the delegation. Brig. Gen. Roy Hoffman of Oklahoma City, a member of the supreme council of the Interallied Veterans' federation, who is credited with having prepared many clauses of the original pronouncements of the organization, is another member of the delegation. Brig. Gen. L. E. Gignilliat, Culver, Ind.; Col. H. H. Folk, Des Moines, Ia.; Col. Ernest O. Thompson, Amarillo, Tex.; and Jerome Stone, Wichita Falls, Tex., are other members of the party. In France the legion party will be joined by Dr. James Brown Scott of the Carnegie peace foundation, Arthur W. Kipling, and H. Cabot Ward of Paris.

Take Definite Stand

At the 1922 convention, held in New Orleans simultaneously with the convention of the American Legion, a definite announcement of policy of the veterans of seven countries were given in a manifesto, which later received the unqualified endorsement of the American Legion. The most striking declaration of the former soldiers was their support of the "world court" project to "outlaw war" and settle international disputes by arbitration.

Will Open Up New Tailoring Store Here On Saturday

Saturday will mark the opening of one more commercial house in Torrance, when J. Lepkin will open a merchant tailoring establishment at 1312 Sartori street, in the new building just completed across the street from the Masonic temple. Mr. Lepkin was for years a successful merchant tailor in Canada. He announces that his new store will present a full line of latest weaves and patterns of imported and domestic woolsens, and that service in cleaning, pressing and repairing will be offered.
